

Versatile, high-energy professional with extensive Human Resource Management and leadership experience in the healthcare, financial and software development industries. Strategic problem-solver finding smart solutions; executes with urgency across all levels of the organization. Hands-on leader able to lead projects and initiatives to drive team performance. Skilled in recruitment (internal and external), increasing employee retention, reducing employee turnover. Exceptional skill in communication (verbally and electronically) and aligning departments with the organization's mission, vision and values.